

The HellermannTyton ACADEMY

Knowledge is power

Welcome to the ACADEMY

Knowledge is power

The networking of people and knowledge is the key to success – and this applies to the future as well.

The HellermannTyton ACADEMY is your interface for sharing, utilising and multiplying knowledge and makes an exchange of experience possible.

Use the ACADEMY as an opportunity to gain further qualifications and new contacts to develop and increase your business successfully.

Our shared goal:
Success through knowledge

The background of the page is a blurred photograph of two women. One woman with dark hair is in the foreground, looking down and slightly to the left. Another woman with blonde hair is partially visible behind her, also looking down. They appear to be in a professional setting, possibly a meeting or training session.

Success multiplies when knowledge is shared

The ACADEMY ensures a global exchange of information in all areas and at all levels. Everyone is cordially invited to share their own knowledge. Together we will become more successful.

Specially developed training sessions – tailor-made to your specific needs – offer you the possibility to find out about our products and new developments and their application in different markets and industries.

As our customer, you are an integral part of the ACADEMY - it grows through your interaction with us whilst also making a valuable contribution towards the successful improvement of your own business. Welcome to the team!

Our goal is to be your first choice in cable management solutions. A well-founded exchange of experiences forms an excellent basis for competent knowledge and professional activities in all markets, for all products and all companies.

Increased knowledge makes your work easier and shortens processes, which in turn makes it possible to guarantee success over the long term while shaping our future together.

The ACADEMY – your benefit:

- The ACADEMY promotes creativity and interdepartmental thoughts and actions. This is important, particularly where complexity challenges us.
- Improve your knowledge of the products and take advantage of the possibilities offered by HellermannTyton.
- Boost your competence with targeted training and widen your perspective for success.
- Facilitate your work and shorten processes in order to reduce your work time.
- Benefit from the know-how of other experts and specialist teams.
- Gain new contacts across different specialist areas.
- Use the ACADEMY as a platform for keeping up-to-date.

With your involvement, we will work as a united global team to make the ACADEMY a personal and professional success story – for you and for HellermannTyton!
